

PERFORMANCE DRUMMERS

The Sultana Dancers are accompanied by a group of performance drummers comprised of many talented musicians, as well as some of the dancers themselves!

The group is a mix of those from varied backgrounds, who come together to learn, enjoy and share in all that comes with playing music and rhythms from a fusion of cultures.

If you are interested in being part of the performance drumming group, we encourage you to contact Lulu of the Sultana Dancers at lulumartini@verizon.net or (509) 430-1656.

DRUMMING LESSONS

For Drumming lessons The Tri-Cities Drum Circle meets on the third Sunday of each month from 2:00-5:00pm for its monthly jam.

These FREE drumming gatherings are completely facilitated, open to the public, and are designed for new and veteran drummers alike. They usually consist of workshops on drumming rhythms, drumming techniques and drum maintenance, and they also offer some time for free-form jamming.

If you would like to attend a free drumming workshop at one of our future monthly jams, please email info@thedrumcircle.org.

The Sultana Dancers

The Sultana Dancers enjoy sharing their love of the dance with others. We perform a fusion of many styles of Middle Eastern dance that includes flavors of Egyptian and Turkish Cabaret, Gypsy and Tribal elements that results in our unique style of fun entertainment meant to be enjoyed by the whole family. We can be seen performing at many community events in the Tri-Cities, Washington State and the Pacific Northwest.

We are fortunate to perform with our drumming group on a regular basis. Live drumming adds a dimension to the "in-the-moment" performance art that is truly a dynamic experience watch!

Often audience members are invited to participate with us - which is fun for all!
